https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245.

Who has access to your data?

Your information will be shared internally, including with members of College staff where access to the data is necessary for the performance of their roles.

Your data will not be transferred to a country outside of the European Economic Area, unless GDPR compliance is assured.

What personal information does the Foundation collect?

Standard internet log information and visitor patterns of behaviour; The request by your browser to the server hosting the website, which includes the IP address,

